

Maggie L. Walker Governor's School for Government and International Studies

Applications and Admissions Information for Private and Home-Schooled Students

Private school and home-schooled students wishing to apply to attend Maggie L. Walker Governor's School for Government and International Studies as ninth grade students may receive applications and admissions information, and submit applications through the participating public school division of their primary residence. (The primary residence of the parent/guardian where the student physically resides) Proof of residency must be provided to receive applications.

Charles City -	Office of the Director of Special Programs at (804) 652-4679
Chesterfield -	Home public middle school* counseling department
Goochland -	Office of Gifted Programs at (804) 556-5610
Hanover -	Home public middle school* counseling department
Henrico -	Office of Gifted Programs at (804) 652-3765
Hopewell -	Home public middle school* counseling department
King and Queen -	Office of the gifted program administrator at (804) 785-5981
New Kent -	Office of Instruction at (804) 966-9697
Petersburg -	Home public junior high school* counseling department
Powhatan -	Gifted Coordinator at (804) 598-5720
Prince George -	Clements Junior High School counseling office at (804) 733-2730
Richmond City -	Home public middle school* counseling department

* Home public middle/ junior high school is the school that a student would attend if the student were enrolled in the public schools.