Dan Brown

Chair, Social Studies

Now entering his 23rd year of full-time employment at Maggie Walker, Dan Brown will serve as the new Chair of the Social Studies Department. Mr. Brown has taught both AP and Honors US History, AP Comparative Government, Global Studies, a Senior Seminar on Military History, and a seminar on the Civil Rights Movement of the 20th Century. He has annually helped sponsor international trips to Canada and England. He has also served as the debate sponsor for the past 22 years. He is a Virginia Commonwealth University graduate who received both his B.A. and M.A. in History from that institution. Mr. Brown and his wife live in Chesterfield.

Mr. Brown is honored to serve as Chair of the Social Studies Department and is enthusiastically looking forward to serving his students, colleagues, and the Maggie Walker community in the upcoming year.

Jennifer Todd

Chair, Science

In her 16th year at Maggie Walker, Jennifer Todd will serve as the new Chair of the Science Department. Ms. Todd has taught high school chemistry for 21 years after earning her Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from William and Mary. While teaching, she also earned her Master of Education in Instruction from UVA's Curry School.

Before teaching, Ms. Todd worked in research and development in the analgesics department for Whitehall-Robins in Richmond. During that time, Ms. Todd looked for an opportunity to combine her love of working with youth with her passion for science. Naturally, she landed on a career in education and has loved being in the chemistry classroom ever since. Ms. Todd loves helping students to learn about their world and themselves. She now looks forward to the opportunity and the challenge to serve the students and her colleagues in a new role.

Co-Coordinator, Counseling

After completing her 14th year at Maggie Walker, Ms. Joy Cobb will partner with Dr. Rachel Loving as Co-Coordinator of the Counseling Department this year. Ms. Cobb received her B.A. in Psychology from the College of William and Mary and her M.Ed in Counselor Education from Virginia Commonwealth University. Ms. Cobb started her position as the sophomore and junior counselor at MLWGS in the fall of 2008.

In addition to her school counseling duties, Ms. Cobb serves as a co-sponsor for Peer Mentors and is a member of the School Advisory Committee. Ms. Cobb has served as a teacher steward for the National Park Services for the past thirteen years. In this capacity, Ms. Cobb volunteers at the Maggie L. Walker National Historic Site and instructs area high school students during the Maggie L. Walker Summer Leadership Institute. In her free time, Ms. Cobb enjoys reading, scrapbooking, traveling, and spending time with her husband, niece, and their dog, Sparkle.

Co-Coordinator, Counseling

After completing her 20th year in education and 14th year at Maggie Walker, Dr. Rachel Loving will partner with Ms. Joy Cobb as Co-Coordinator of the Counseling Department this year. Dr. Loving graduated with honors from Randolph-Macon College with a B.A. in Psychology. She continued her education at Virginia Commonwealth University, receiving an M.Ed. in Counselor Education. Dr. Loving began her career as a school counselor at Caroline High School in Caroline County in the fall of 2002 and was eventually appointed Guidance Director. Dr. Loving also spent a year as the Welcome Center Coordinator for James Madison University. At JMU, Dr. Loving served prospective students and parents within the Office of Admissions and earned her post-master's certificate in College Student Personnel Administration. Dr. Loving started her position as a senior counselor at MLWGS in the fall of 2008 and earned her Ph.D. in Educational Leadership from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2012.

Dr. Loving is the sponsor for the National Honor Society and will serve as Vice President of the School Advisory Council (SAC) this year. She is passionate about assisting Maggie Walker's talented students with all aspects of their development and is looking forward to being a part of the school's leadership team. Outside of school, Dr. Loving enjoys spending time outdoors with her husband, daughter, and son.
