

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER IN-SERVICE ACTIVITIES

Members of Maggie L. Walker Governor’s School Regional Board participate annually in high-quality professional development activities through their local home division at the state, local, or national levels on governance, including personnel policies and practices; the evaluation of personnel, curriculum, and instruction; use of data in planning and decision-making; and current issues in education as part of their service on the Regional School Board.

Each regional board member completes a training session on the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) through their local home division provided by the Virginia Freedom of Information Advisory Council or the home division Board’s attorney.

Each regional board member completes a training session for local elected officials through their local home division on the State and Local Government Conflict of Interests Act (COIA) provided by the Virginia Conflict of Interest and Ethics Advisory Council (the Ethics Council).

The local home division school board clerk maintains records of the dates on which each school board member completed the required FOIA and COIA training sessions. The records are maintained in the home division clerk’s office for five years.
