

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT IN DECISION MAKING

The Regional School Board will call meetings of the people of the school for consultation in regard to school interests thereof when it deems such meetings to be necessary.

The Regional School Board may appoint a committee's of not less than three or more than seven members in the school. The committee's duty will be to advise the members of the Regional School Board with reference to matters pertaining to the school and to cooperate with the Regional School Board in the care of the school property and in the successful operation of the school. Such committees serve without compensation.
